Succeed H. W. Lewis
on Water Board

At a meeting of the directors of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company at Orange, Hugh J. Plumb of Tustin was elected as director to succeed Harry W. Lewis, who resigned a month ago.

Plumb is an active young orchardist of the Tustin district, and is recognized as a man of good judgment and ability. Lewis, who has been a valuable and active director, gave up the position after a number of years of faithful service.

At the meeting of the directors, the superintendent's report was read and ordered filed, as follows:

Orange, Cal., Sept. 17, 1919.
To the Board of Directors of the S. A. V. I. Co.—Gentlemen:
Work done during the past month is as follows:

At the head of the main canal have constructed two waste gates, one of which was a replacement due to being undermined.

Have cleaned ditches F. G. GG, H and V and have cleaned moss in main canal from Olive to the J. Bush place.

Have cut willows and tules below upper dam and plowed up banks of same.

Have received and stored 396 sacks of Victorville cement.

Respectfully submitted,

As per notice of Assessment No. 71, levied June 28, 1919, the secretary, O. E. Mansur, offered for sale the stock which was delinquent on account of failure to pay said assessment No. 71.

No bidders offered the amount of assessments, costs, and charges due for any of the following stock and the same was therefore bid in by the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company through Director A. G. Finley, at the amount of assessments, costs and charges, to-wit:

SINGLE MAN ESCAPES
BECAUSE OF NO LAW

MILL VALLEY, Cal., Sept. 30.—Dr. Robert Boyd, veterinary surgeon, is a free man today because he is unmarried.

He was arrested on the charge of improper conduct with the wife of Dr. Cecil Moulton, city veterinarian of Fresno. The charges were preferred by Moulton.

Town Recorder Paul Helmore, who heard the case, dismissed Boyd on the grounds that the supreme court has ruled there is no law under which a single man can be prosecuted for improper conduct with a married woman.

The state laws can reach cases where both parties are married, or where both are single.

The evidence in the Boyd case was not brought out.

A Great Remedy
The merits of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy are well known and appreciated, but there is occasionally a man who had no acquaintance with them and should read the following by F. H. Dear, a hotel man at Dupuyer, Mont.: "Four years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy with such wonderful results that I have since recommended it to my friends."—Adv.

The profits of the 1919 State Fair at Sacramento were placed at between $9,000 and $10,000 by the state board of control.

Association Starts Petitions to Get Measure Put on Ballot

STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 30.—Senator Sharkey's motion to carry the anti-Japanese fight directly to the people of California was adopted at the first meeting of the Anti-Japanese Association of California held here last night.

The executive committee is today preparing the most drastic anti-Japanese laws, and have five petitions to be circulated, in order to get a vote on the ballot in 1920.

The program includes cancellation of the "gentlemen's agreement" with Japan; exclusion of all picture brides; prevention of any more Japanese entering the country; barring Japanese forever from American citizenship; amendment of article 14 of the federal constitution providing that no children in the United States of foreign parents can become citizens unless both of their parents are eligible for citizenship.

A wide campaign of education is to be carried on.

J. W. Inman was elected president; Senator F. S. Boggs of Stockton, vice president; G. C. Roedig, secretary; and Henry Wulf of Venice, treasurer.

Sharkey's argument that it was difficult to get action through the legislature because of powerful hostile influences brought to bear, resulted in the decision to take the matter directly to the people.

Many state officials, including Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan were present and ready to co-operate in the movement.

Punch In Anti-Jap Move
Explained By Sen. Sharkey

MARTIN, Cal., Sept. 30.—"The real punch in the anti-Japanese program adopted last night at Stockton is found in the proposal to amend section 1, article 14 of the federal constitution," State Senator Sharkey declared to the United Press today.

"Such an amendment would stop the practice of raising Japanese children in the United States for the purpose of grabbing land," Senator Sharkey added. "We can't stop this under present laws."

Senator Sharkey introduced the motion before the Anti-Japanese Association of California to place on the ballot at the next election certain drastic anti-Japanese measures by means of the initiative.

"Japanese are not now permitted to own property because they are not citizens," Sharkey explained. "Their children, however, born in the United States, become citizens automatically by virtue of this section of the constitution. Therefore the Japanese are importing picture brides for propagation purposes and through the children born in America are grabbing our land."

Sharkey said the initiative petitions will be circulated very soon after Senator Inman appoints an executive committee in Sacramento.

BRITISH OBSTRUCTING
U. S. BUSINESS, CLAIM

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—British agents are obstructing American efforts to establish business in Germany, Congressmen Britten of Illinois, declared today when he arrived on a sightseeing tour with Mrs. Britten and his secretary.

Britten said that British inspectors at the boundary line this side of Cologne had treated him insolently. After he had entered his compartment on the train, he said, they insisted that he must go outside for them to examine his passes.

"America ought to awaken to the business situation in Germany," Britten asserted. "The British are allowing their own representatives to enter the country freely, but are carefully obstructing Americans in an effort to obtain all the facts pertaining to their business and other affairs. German-American business ought to be resumed quickly."

PROBES GOING TO PITTSBURGH
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Members of the senate labor committee will go to the Pittsburgh steel field to make a personal investigation of the steel strike situation Friday if a vote on treaty amendments can be postponed, Senator Kenyon, chairman, announced today.

If you want to build a nice little sidewalk at very small expense, use the wooden ends from paper rolls at the Register office. They are made of two-ply half-inch boards, very substantial. They are round, 26 inches in diameter. Come take as many as you need at 5c each.

Express Confidence

Citizens of Anaheim are voting today upon a proposed bond issue of $75,000 for the purchase of a civic center site, including the block bounded by Los Angeles, Broadway, Lemon and Chestnut streets, upon one corner of which the Anaheim public library stands.

Considerable interest was manifested among Anaheim voters and up to early this afternoon more than four hundred votes had been polled. It was expected the total vote would run around the 700 mark.

A two-thirds vote is required for the success of the bonds, but proponents of the improvement expressed confidence today that the issue would be approved.

STEEL WORKERS ARE RETURNING TO JOBS

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 30.—The Pittsburgh forges of the steel industry were standing firm today against the onslaughts of union leaders. Early police reports from this district indicated continued additions to the operators' ranks.

Many mills, closed since the strike began, resumed operations and other mills, admittedly working under a handicap for the past few days today reported working near capacity.

The Pennsylvania plant of the National Tube Company, the Braddock Works of the American Steel and Wire Company, McKeesport Tinplate Company and the Pittsburgh Steel Foundry were among the larger plants again operating.

Secretary Foster of the national committee scoffed at reports of deserters from his ranks.

CONDUCT CASE FINED

A plea of guilty was entered by Attorney J. C. Burke for Thomas Welch, said to be a solicitor, who was charged by W. G. Cook of 711 Garfield street, this city, with offensive conduct in the presence of Cook's wife, Hulda Cook. Justice Cox levied a fine of $25 against Welch, this amount having been put up as bail. The defendant did not appear in court.

GOVERNMENT REMOVES AMATEUR RADIO BAN

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Notification that the ban on sending wireless messages from amateur stations had been lifted was received yesterday by Seated Brothers, 342 South Fremont street, representing the American Radio Relay League. The war-time order which prohibited amateurs receiving messages was lifted last April and yesterday's order is largely due to the effects of the league.

BEEES BEING RAISED FOR THEIR STINGERS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—How doth the little busy bee improve each shining hour?

He's raising stingers now to aid science.

Inauguration of raising bees for their stingers has already obtained a footing in Southern California. Hive men are quickly following the example of eastern bee raisers in developing bees for the stingers and not for the honey.

The stingers contain formic acid of great medicinal value in the cure of rheumatism. The bee is relieved of the valuable substance by piners.

But There's $85 Yet to Raise
For Santa Ana's Share of Mutual Phone Expense

"Here's five dollars to help out with the preliminary expense of the mutual telephone plan." With that, W. S. Martin plunked down five dollars as the contribution of himself and Mrs. M. E. Martin to Santa Ana's quota.

The preliminary expense of getting the mutual telephone plan under way was apportioned to the different exchanges of the county, Santa Ana's quota being $273. Notices were sent to all Chamber of Commerce members and many others, asking donations to the fund of $1.00 or more. Many have responded and to date $188 has been put into the fund, leaving $85 more yet to raise.

It will take just eighty-five one-dollar contributions to put Santa Ana "over the top" and the Chamber of Commerce and the telephone committee will appreciate a quick response on the part of those who have been asked to donate or any others who are interested in the establishment of a county-wide mutual telephone system.

The money may be mailed or taken personally to the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, second floor of the city hall.

Besides the Martins, other recent contributions to the telephone fund are: C. H. Hatch, W. S. Hatch, D. Eymann Huff, H. J. Forgy, Mary P. Wall, City Transfer Co, R. J. Thompson, Alex. Brownridge, Sam Hurwitz, C. Y. Martin, B. A. Crawford, California Cate Co, Arthur Lyon, J. E. Britton, Mrs. M. E. Martin, W. S. Martin, C. Gammell, Dr. Willella, H. Waffle and Miss Julia Campbell.

WATT MORELAND TO GIVE TALK AT LUNCHEON

Chamber of Commerce and M. and M. Resume Weekly Gatherings Tomorrow

Tomorrow at 12 noon is the time, and James' Gold Room at 216 West Fourth street, just enlarged, is the place, where Santa Ana businessmen will gather at the first joint luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce and M. and M. since the several months' vacation.

This will be the opening luncheon of another series and there will undoubtedly be a good attendance. The luncheons will hereafter be held every Wednesday noon from 12 to 1—sharp—and many topics of interest to Santa Ana will be discussed by outside and home talent.

Aside from being the opener, tomorrow's "Wednesday Luncheon" is to be notable in that Watt L. Moreland, president of the Moreland Motor Truck Company and president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, will be present and will address the gathering.

Mr. Moreland is himself a large employer of labor and he has been asked to speak upon present industrial conditions.

It would be a good idea if those going to attend will notify the Chamber of Commerce, phone 222, in the morning, so that proper accommodations may be provided for all.

JAPS PLAN TO SELL SHIPS TO AMERICANS

TOKIO, Sept. 30.—Japanese shipbuilders are afraid they have too many shipyards and that the output of new tonnage will exceed the demand. They are planning on selling the excess ships in America and Europe.

If worked at capacity 1,300,000 tons can be built next year. The probable output, however, will be around 800,000 tons, which is 100,000 tons more than this year. Doubt is expressed whether Japanese interests can absorb that tonnage.

BEACH CITY HAS HEAVIEST RAIN IN YEARS

Beans and Beets May Be Damaged; Fair Will Not Be Retarded

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 30.—One of the heaviest rain falls ever known in this vicinity occurred Monday morning between 8 and 12 o'clock, when the main streets were covered to the top of the curb in many places, and portions of the fair grounds were covered with water from a fraction of an inch to a foot in depth, thus retarding the work in getting up the stage and coops and various tables necessary for the exhibit.

It is estimated that fully two inches of water fell in the few hours it was raining and it cannot but result in much damage to both beans and beets, and also to much bean straw already threshed and barley hay still in the field in the bale.

Should the weather remain cloudy or rain continue for a few days longer many fields of beans will be a total loss. The loss to the beets can be remedied somewhat by plowing them out and thus stop the new growth which reduces the sugar percentage.

It is not thought that the rain will retard the fair in any way unless very heavy rains yet follow during the latter part of the week, which is not probable.

There will be an interesting army display at the fair and possible many souvenirs from the late war.

Mrs. Alice Gerber, 435 Lake street, died Thursday and was buried in the local cemetery Saturday morning.

A very enjoyable party was held on the beach Thursday, complimentary to one of the old soldiers, E. C. Seymour, of Highland, under the auspices of the G. A. R. and Woman's Relief Corps. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour came to this city about four months ago in order to take in the veterans' encampment here in August. They returned to their home Monday after an enjoyable summer at the beach.

Mrs. Harriet L. R. Grove left Monday for Los Angeles where she expects to engage in missionary work, having sold her home here at 1111 Orange avenue.

W. R. Whorton is spending a week at San Juan Hot Springs, and expects to be back in time for the fair.

Forrest B. Turner of Ontario, with his wife, was in the city over Sunday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Turner.

Rev. R. I. McKee left today for Santa Barbara to attend the annual conference. He made the trip by auto with Rev. Sutton of Santa Ana.

Rev. William Whitfield will have charge of the morning and evening services at the local M. E. church next Sunday.

George W. Wardwell returned on Thursday from a trip to his old home in Wisconsin.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular monthly meeting at the W. E. church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

TWO MUSICIANS ARE REMAINING IN ARMY

Four young Santa Ana musicians who were upon a vaudeville tour of the country when the war broke out and who enlisted together in the First U. S. Cavalry at Ft. Douglass, have parted company. One of them, Julian D. Mathews, son of N. E. Mathews, has arrived here after two years in the army. Another, W. H. Branniges, is returning to Los Angeles to go into musical work. Frank Neiman is remaining at Ft. Douglass as leader of the camp's orchestra. Jules Jacques has re-enlisted and will probably be made leader of the band at Camp Douglass.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Peacock and their young son were visitors in Laguna last week.

Maurice Isch was the recipient of a most unpleasant surprise one night last week. He had retired to his bed on the porch and was sleeping peacefully, when some unkind person turned the hose on him, full force. # FRANK OIL CO.

Offers the Unsold Portion of 25,000 Shares of the Capital Stock at $1.00—Non Assessable

THE FRANK OIL COMPANY is an organization formed by business men to operate on a business basis. The company has a small capital, and owns a number of well-located properties in the best producing fields of Texas, as well as a large acreage in one of the most promising potential fields (Eastland County) now under development in that State. It offers the conservative investor an opportunity to become associated in an organization which affords him the greatest degree of protection possible in a company of this nature.

On the tenth day of each month a sworn statement will be issued before a notary, giving a true statement of the condition of the company's business, the results of development work, and the future prospects of the company. The business policy of this company, we believe, will appeal to every business man.

The frank, open policies of the company and the aggressive development of the leases and acreage under the management of efficient oil men are well worthy of your attention, and even though you do not purchase stock in the Frank Oil Company, watch the progress of this company during the next sixty days.

Here is a presentation of the company properties at this time, and it will pay you to read them over carefully, and compare the locations on the maps with reference to the producing properties in the respective fields.

LEASES—ACREAGE

A drilling site of eight lots in the Desdemona Field, one mile north of the town of Desdemona.

Five acres in the Desdemona Field, two miles west of the town of Desdemona.

Five acres in the Northwest Burk-Burnett District, being the east side of the Lucinda Meadows Survey, and the side lines of our acreage adjoin the famous Block 98.

Three hundred and twenty acres in Eastland County, three miles west of the town of Cisco.

The above properties are sufficient to furnish the company with ample drilling territory for some time to come, and all are located in line with producing properties.

DEVELOPMENT WORK

Contracts have been placed for drilling on the eight lots at Desdemona. The contract calls for a completed well within thirty-five days from the date it is spudded in, and this well should be completed not later than October 15.

Drilling contracts have been let and a derrick is now being erected on the five-acre tract at Desdemona. Active drilling will be under way within a few days.

PROVEN TERRITORY

The eight lots in the Desdemona Field are in a territory surrounded by a large number of producing wells, among which might be mentioned the Ranger Rock Island, 800 feet southeast; the Magnolia-Davis Well a thousand feet to the west; and the Foot Well about a quarter mile north.

The five-acre tract at Desdemona is located in close proximity to many proven wells, and the surrounding territory is now being actively developed. The most noted neighboring producers are the Eppler Well, 300 yards west; the Lewis Well, which is just north of our property; and the famous Southland Well, a mile and a quarter southeast.

The five acres in the Northwest Burk-Burnett adjoins the famous Block 98, and is practically surrounded by producing wells, and the adjacent territory is dotted with rigs of the wells now under develop-

CAPITALIZATION AND VALUE—POSSIBLE DIVIDENDS

The nominal capitalization of the Frank Oil Company should appeal to the conservative business man. The $150,000.00 for which this company is capitalized does not by any means represent the value of its acreage. In comparison with prices recently paid for adjoining territory, the value of the holdings would be far in excess of our present capitalization.

The policy of the company will be to distribute to its shareholders as large a percentage of the profits as would be in accord with good business practice. An adequate reserve fund will be created for new development work and the acquisition of additional properties, therefore 50 per cent of the net income will be paid as dividends, and 50 per cent applied to the reserve fund.

MENTAL TESTS

One of the big universities is applying "practical psychological tests" to applicants for entrance, to determine their degree of intelligence. It is no doubt highly desirable that none but intelligent young men should be admitted to college. Some of the test questions, however, are proving rather puzzling to the candidates, and no less so to people outside who heretofore have never seriously doubted their own practical intelligence.

Suppose the reader were asked to make a cross before the best answer to the question, "Why should every man be educated," the answers to select from being as follows:

"Because Roosevelt was educated."
"Because it makes a man more useful."

"Because it costs money."
"Because some educated people are wise."

Now, frankly, which answer would you choose? And have you any idea whether your most intelligent friend would choose the same answer?

Here is one that may make still more trouble. The subject is required to write the letter F before "each of these statements which could not possibly be true:"

1. "The dog pursued the stag through flower gardens in full bloom."
2. "While sharpening his three-bladed knife, my cousin cut his middle finger."
3. "The red-haired girl, standing in the corner, is taller than any of her brothers."

Does the more or less intelligent reader know of any good reason why a dog could not pursue a stag through flower gardens in full bloom? Or why a cousin could not cut his middle finger while sharpening a three-bladed knife? Or why a red-headed girl could not be taller than any of her brothers, no matter what color their hair may be?

We give it up. These mental tests are too much for us. We could never break into college, on this basis.

NO UNSELFISHNESS

Prof. Raymond Dodge, a distinguished American psychologist, announces that there is no such thing as unselfishness. All people, even patriots and martyrs, he explains, are selfish in the last analysis.

That is to say, even in their acts performed for others, in apparent self-sacrifice, they are doing what they want to do—doing the things that give them most satisfaction. The martyr would rather sacrifice himself for a cause than refrain from sacrificing himself. Hence, the professor argues, what seems like self-abnegation is really only a higher form of selfishness.

We are permitted to distinguish between different grades of selfishness, it seems; but that is all. Everything is selfishness, the difference being simply a matter of degree. Deliberate injury to others is very selfish. Deliberate service of others or benefit to others is less selfish—it verges on the altruistic—but it is all selfish just the same, because it really benefits ourselves, and because it is what we prefer to do.

Believe it or not—the professor makes a good argument. And one phase of it deserves more attention than it is likely to receive. It is the suggestion that people no matter how they are acting or what they are doing are probably "doing the things they want to do the most."

Most persons will not readily admit this. They will argue they really want to do something other than what they are doing—that they would prefer a different occupation or a different course of life. But would they?

The conclusive answer seems to be found in the fact that they continue doing what they are doing. That in itself shows their choice conscious or unconscious. If they actually preferred a different course of life wouldn't they choose it?

HONESTY PREVAILS

The general public knows that the great bulk of advertising found in reliable newspapers today is honest and instructive. The advertising sections of magazines and daily newspapers are read as regularly and thoroughly as the other sections. The most successful ad is the one that presents its goods not only attractively but truthfully.

Honesty in advertising was the keynote of the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World recently meeting in New Orleans La. Representatives from Australia India South and Central America attended that convention along with members from clubs in the United States and other countries.

The convention heard many leaders in the advertising profession urge a steady stand for truth in advertising.

Honesty has long been recognized as the best policy in dealing between individuals. It is also the best policy in domestic and international advertising.

THE MEMORIAL

Moving with commendable slowness, the committee having in charge the memorial to former President Roosevelt has settled definitely upon the plans for only one of the three-fold forms the memorial is to take. The park at Oyster Bay bearing Roosevelt's name will be begun almost immediately. To the park there will be added later, in all probability, the house and grounds of Sagamore Hill, beloved by the president and the place where throngs of his friends and followers visited him and saw him at his best.

Lest there be any of the regrettable blunders in choice and design, so frequent in objects of this kind, the committee is taking more time to determine just what the memorial at Washington shall be. This is to be distinctly a monument, but the committee hopes to have it of such appropriate yet beautiful character that it shall fulfill its purpose satisfactorily for generations to come.

The third branch of the memorial requires greater judgment still. It consists in the establishment of an institution at some place not yet determined where American citizenship as Roosevelt saw it and lived it shall be taught. As to this no definite plan has even been outlined.

Value of Punctuation

Sacramento Bee
One of the Bee's special writers the other day had a short article showing the benefit, if not the absolute necessity, of correct and intelligent punctuation.

Punctuation, like grammar and spelling, seems to be one of the lost arts. It is a matter of common knowledge in newspaper offices that very frequently letters and communications come from graduates of our high schools, and even from our state university, whose spelling is laughable, whose grammar is poor, and whose punctuation is abominable.

The meaning of an essential point in more than one letter has been spoiled by misplaced punctuation, or none at all—which is worse.

And it seems to be quite a fad with only too many of our writers nowadays to use nothing but periods, leaving to the reader the sometimes hopeless task of placing colons, and semicolons, and commas, and dashes where they should have been supplied by the writer.

Punctuation is to English in effect what signboards are to a highway. The latter tell you where you are going; the former informs your reader the meaning of what you are saying.

Without signboards on the highway the traveler frequently gets lost; without proper punctuation, the reader is more frequently muddled.

One of the best stenographers this state ever saw grew to be such by constant application and intense hard work.

He rightly held that a stenographer who knows nothing about punctuation is not a stenographer but a machine—and not a very good machine at that. And he drilled himself until his punctuation became illuminative and explanatory of his text.

He learned punctuation by studying the works of Charles Dickens who was a marvel in this line. Any person who will read Dickens will remember that his punctuation always was so perfect that it emphasized and lightened his sentences; and never, like the punctuation of so many authors, obscured it.

Making Americans

Buffalo Commercial
There is a great deal of verbal and written propaganda on behalf of the Americanization of aliens who presumably will some day become citizens of the United States. Much of this misses fire, but there is a value to such propaganda. It does help to create an atmosphere and is a very direct recognition of the signal work done by the older workers in the cause of Americanization, in the school and out of them, and by arousing a general feeling of urgency that "something must be done." It does give those who have been carrying on the Americanization movement a chance to make themselves heard and to be sympathetically received when they speak out.

Of course every sensible American believes in doing everything possible to bring about amalgamation of the alien elements among us. And it might be said in this connection that there are considerable numbers of native born citizens who take altogether too easily their civic duties. They would be better teachers if they were better students of government and more active personally on behalf of good politics. After all it is the schools which must give the first lessons in Americanization. Later it largely depends on the individual. Instruction first and example all the time will win in the long run.

If you want to build a nice little sidewalk at very small expense, use the wooden ends from paper rolls at the Register office. They are made of two-ply half-inch boards, very substantial. They are round, 26 inches in diameter. Come take as many as you need at 5c each.

A Merry Chase

Will We Get Our Share?

Thousands of easterners are coming to California this fall and winter. This state is to be visited by more people, by all indications, in the next six months than during any previous six months. A bigger proportion of those coming than is usual among fall and winter tourist arrivals is contemplating making California a permanent home.

Will Orange county get its share of permanent residents from among these newcomers?

Are we doing all that we can to take care of all of those who do and will come to us?

Last week a Minnesota man, just arrived, stepped into the Register office and said that he had searched the city for an available place to rent suitable to his modest needs.

"We had always heard that you people were anxious to have us," said he, "and after we were won to coming and have made our plans to stay here, we are faced with a peculiar condition. There is no place for us to stay."

He presented the situation exactly. The housing of new arrivals is a problem in this county right now, and while the only permanent solution lies in the construction of more houses, some temporary relief might be obtained through a county organization that would devote its energies toward a canvass of possibilities for housing tourists. Possibly, there are public halls that could be cut up into housekeeping rooms. If we do not do some systematic work toward providing places for tourists to stay, certainly we will not get as many permanent residents from among the arrivals of the next few months as we ought to get.

Ye Storm Winds of Autumn

Ye storm-winds of Autumn!
Who rush by, who shake
The window, and rattle
The gleam-lighted lake;
Who cross to the hill-side
Thin-sprinkled with farms,
Where the high woods strip sadly
Their yellowing arms—
Ye are bound for the mountains!
Ah! with you let me go
Where your cold, distant barrier,
The vast range of snow,
Through the loose clouds lifts dimly
Its white peaks in air—
How deep is their stillness!
Ah, would I were there!

Hark! the wind rushes past us!
Ah! with that let me go
To the clear waning hill-side
Unspotted by snow,
There to watch, o'er the sunk vale,
The froze mountain-wall
Where the niched snow-bed sprays down
Its powdery fall.
There its dusky blue clusters
The aconite spreads;
There the pines slope, the cloud-strips
Hung soft in their heads.
No life but, at moments,
The mountain-bee's hum,
—I come, O ye mountains!
Ye pine-woods, I come!

—Matthew Arnold.

LITANY OF WAR MOTHERS

Mary, Mother of God!
I, too, am a mother like you!
I, too, have borne a man-child—
A sturdy and staunch man-child—
Aye, I have borne two!

Mary, Mother of God!
I, too, have felt lips at my breast;
Tiny soft lips of the babe—
Close-clinging, dear, helpless
babe—
Oh! I have been blest.

Mary, Mother of God!
I have held the hands and the feet—
Smoothed back the hair on the head—
Soft baby hair, tiny head—
Oh, but it was sweet!

Mary, Mother of God!
I speak for the mothers at large!
All of us mothers of men!
Strong, valiant, daring men!
Our gurdan! Our charge!

Mary, Mother of God!
Who went down to hell with your Son,
Go now with us in our stress—
Our pitiful need and dire distress—
For our thoughts are as one.

Mary, Mother of God!
Even as you in your time;
We are sending our sons forth to save—
The whole world to rescue and save—
To a future sublime!

Mary, Mother of God!
As Christ, they have taken their cross!
Giving up all for the Cause—
Offering their lives for the Cause—
Our blessing—our loss.

Mary, Mother of God!
Mother heart, mother soul,
mother mind!
May we, in our love for each son—
Each dearly-loved, love-worthy son—
The Christ—courage find.

Mary, Mother of God!
May we be worthy our meed;
Mothers of warriors brave—
Mothers of men just and brave—
Mothers of MEN indeed!

First Ebell Meeting

The Ebell Society started the season's work most auspiciously yesterday afternoon at Elks' Hall, the large audience that greeted the new president, Mrs. J. E. Gowen, plainly demonstrating that it takes more than an autumn rain to keep Ebell members away from their enjoyable meetings.

Yesterday's meeting was held in the gray banquet room, and was in the nature of a reception to new members, with a very enjoyable musical program.

Mrs. Gowen, in a thoughtful little greeting, outlined briefly Ebell's purpose to keep abreast of the big movements of the day, to be helpful to the community and to each other and to furnish recreation as well as inspiration to its members.

Mrs. H. M. Sammis, county music chairman, led the audience in a very enjoyable fifteen minutes of community singing, with Mrs. Arnold Peek at the piano.

The call was read for the County Convention of Federated Women's Clubs, which will be held at Huntington Beach on Saturday, October 18th. The following delegates will represent Ebell: Mmes. E. L. Morrison, J. E. Paul, E. B. Burns, John Clarkson, H. J. Trueblood, T. A. Winbiger, W. L. Leiby, George Reyburn, W. E. Otis, E. L. Prince, W. L. Deimling, and J. Dick Wilson. that twenty-one new members had been received since the July board meeting, bringing Ebell's membership up to 301.

Mrs. Arthur Lyon, chairman of the Day Nursery committee, gave a very interesting report of that institution.

Sixty children were enrolled at the nursery during July, showing the far-reaching good achieved under Mrs. Paul Wright's capable management. Over $80 was taken in at the nursery in July from the sale of clothing and for the care of children. August showed receipts of $96, and September, $129. This money is aside from Ebell's allowance to the Day Nursery. "We are not asking you for money," said Mrs. Lyon to her interested hearers. "We are asking only for the things you do not want—old clothing, shoes, and other salvage."

Much clothing recently received, said Mrs. Lyon, had been used to outfit children for school.

Mrs. N. A. Beals, the curator, told of the work being done by the sections, and offered her help in organizing new sections.

The musical program was in charge of Mrs. F. W. Slabaugh who had secured some of the finest talent of which Santa Ana is justly proud. Mr. Clarence Gustlin accompanied the other artists, which is another way of saying that the accompaniments were perfect.

Miss Cranston gave two whistling solos, which were warmly applauded. Mrs. Ollimae Matthews, a newcomer in Santa Ana musical circles, and one whose talent assures her a hearty welcome, gave three charming violin numbers. The first, "An Old Refrain" (Kriessler), was a delight, and the encore "From a Wigwag" (Cecil Burleigh) was a haunting bit of melody. Mrs. Slabaugh sang first "Love Is a Bubble," followed by a magnificent rendition of "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," from Samson and Delilah. Mrs. Slabaugh's beautiful voice was never heard to better advantage. As a finale Mrs. Slabaugh sang "By Lake Minnetonka," with a violin obligato by Mrs. Matthews and with Mr. Gustlin at the piano.

At the end of the program, the Ebell members and their guests flocked around the daintily-prepared refreshment table, where sherbet and cakes were dispensed by the entertainment committee, under the able leadership of Mrs. George Balderston. A friendly get-acquainted hour closed a more than usually pleasant afternoon.

Study Classes

Though the rain kept many of the members at home, the two mission study classes, recently organized in the First Baptist church, met on the south side with Mrs. J. W. Taylor to study the "Crusade of Compassion" with Mrs. W. G. Gould as leader and on the north side with Mrs. M. M. Holmes for the discussion of "Christian Americanization," led by Mrs. O. S. Catland.

These two societies meet every Monday afternoon for the purpose of reading and studying one chapter of their books. They are informal, sociable circles and anyone, whether they are a member of the society or of the church, if they are interested in the subjects, they are given a warm welcome at the meetings.

Poly High Girls Celebrate

Twenty girls gathered in the gymnasium at "Poly" last night to celebrate their birthdays. A birthday party will be held once a month for all the girls whose birthdays come in that month.

"Hello cards," especially printed for the occasion, were handed out and the girls got acquainted. After this had been accomplished, everybody was set to work at the arduous task of dressing clothes-pins. When the dolls were finished, the girls were told that these were their birthday presents.

A great many admiring exclamations were heard when a large and beautiful cake was brought to the front, but for all its beauty, it was only a camouflage, being made of tissue paper. Though some were disappointed, they were all consoled, as underneath were found a great many delicious "all-day suckers," which were greatly enjoyed.

Everyone was loath to leave, after playing several amusing games.

$100,000,000 WORTH ART TREASURES FOUND

PARIS, Sept. 30.—Art treasures valued at more than $100,000,000 which belonged to Catharine II of Russia, who died in 1796, have been discovered by the Bolshevik commission charged with classifying the property of the late Czar Nicholas in the Winter Palace and in the Palace of Tsarskoe-Selo.

The cases containing these treasures had never been opened since they were sent to Catharine from Rome. The find includes more than one thousand paintings and sculptures by some of the greatest French and Italian masters, including Terpolo, Roubin, La Tour, Lancret and Fragonar.

How's this for quick action: Mr. A. Folsom had two oil heaters which he didn't need. He inserted a little classified ad in the Register and before he received his own copy of the paper, both stoves were sold to people who read the classified columns first. He says he could have sold a dozen stoves. Have you anything you do not need?

Build Now

Build Now

Put Your Money in Your Own Home

Not only will this prove a good investment, but you will also be happy in the satisfaction of owning your own home. "Build, and build now is the word for the action if Santa Ana is to continue her growth and maintain her lead as the metropolis of Orange County.

Never in the history of Santa Ana was there a greater demand for homes than at the present time. Many newcomers are attracted to our beautiful, prosperous city every day. In most instances these people are homeseekers and would gladly locate here if they could secure modern, "homey" houses in which to live. "Newcomers are arriving every day and appealing for accommodations," states Secretary Metzgar of the Chamber of Commerce. "The situation is getting serious and Santa Ana is going to lose population by not providing the housing needed." An extensive building campaign is the only solution of the problem and it should be launched today for opportunity will favor those cities that welcome the stranger with comfortable abodes and bids them "bide a wee." Every one owning a lot should plan to erect some suitable building on it immediately. Renters who are planning to build their own home can greatly assist in the present situation by letting the builders start at once that little dream castle with its cosy nooks and corners and settees.

JAZZ MUSIC IS RIDICULED BY RETURNED Y WORKER

Rev. Wright Says Soldiers Liked Old Folk and Pat- riotic Songs Best

Rev. Paul E. Wright, well known minister of this city, who has just returned from a "Y" work over in France, jabbed a red-hot poker into the wriggling form of Old Man Jazz last evening at the open meeting of the Santa Ana Musical Association at the First Congregational church.

Rev. Wright had been asked to tell something about music in the war camps and he took the occasion to bitterly arraign the music, if such it can be called, which was brought out by Americans in the great world struggle, which should have been the incentive for something great and noble.

Said the speaker, "The war of 1812 brought out our national anthem, 'The Star Spangled Banner,' and the Civil War 'The Battle Hymn of the Republic,' but the best America could do in this late war was 'Good-bye, Maw, Good-bye, Paw.'"

"I should much rather," said Rev. Wright, "have some one swear in my presence than to play jazz," and a deep bass voice down in the audience spoke out feelingly, "Amen!"

The speaker reiterated that it is just as much a sin to profane music as it is language.

Art in its various branches has made the fame of the various great countries. Centuries after the Kaiser is dead, the great musicians of Germany will live. "What would Germany be without Beethoven and he was really a Jew. Italy is made famous by Michael Angelo and Raphael and in the ancient days Greece and Judea were made famous by art and architecture.

Has Gradually Deteriorated

The speaker said that "in the colonial days people danced the stately Minuet and enjoyed refined and elevating music, which has gradually deteriorated, until now, we have come to jazz." The great war, he said, was gloriously won, but it was in spite of jazz, not because of it. Rev. Wright stated "the soldier boys were not enthusiastic about singing jazz music, and when these songs were led by a 'Y' man or anybody else, they fell flat, but the boys did love to sing the fine old folk ballads and patriotic songs. America had to follow the negro taste for its war music, as the 'inventor' of jazz was a colored man and his name was Wright. This was because America did not know any better," the speaker said. If we would have a refined taste we must eat good things. People should be vaccinated or inoculated in some way to get jazz out of their systems and get a taste for better music."

Coming down to local conditions, Mr. Wright said that Orange county's farm products bring in about $40,000,000 a year and she spends about $350 a year for music. He urged that the people co-operate with the musical as-

Mother Publishes Poems In Hero Son's Memory

A DELIGHTFUL little book, of which Mrs. Edith Grensted Rochester is the author, is fresh from the press, and is giving great pleasure to those who have been given the privilege of reading its contents.

The book is entitled "From Star to Star," and is dedicated to Mrs. Rochester's hero son, Sergeant Nathaniel Rochester, who gave his life for his country on the field of the Argonne, with "The Lost Battalion," October 8, 1918.

The dedicatory page contains the following: "To my son and comrade Nathaniel Norman Rochester, to his glowing youth, and glorious courage; to his faith, his honor and his all-enfolding love, this book of verse, of which he was the greatest inspiration."

On the opposite page is an excellent photograph of the lad, whose friends in this city and vicinity were legion.

Mrs. Rochester was preparing the material for her book, when Sergeant Nat went to war and he had promised to illustrate it for her upon his return, having excellent talent with his pencil.

Mrs. Rochester has proved herself a delightful poet, and her lines appeal to her readers. The majority of the poems in "From Star to Star" and also in her first booklet, "Forenoon and Afternoon and Night" are brief and prove an attraction when one sits down to enjoy a brief moment with the muses.

The themes are on nature, philosophy, love, war, light verse and miscellaneous titles. "From Star to Star" proves even more enjoyable, appearing as it does at nearly the same time as a memorial tablet to Sergeant Nat is to be unveiled in the place where he worshipped, the Church of the Messiah. The date of dedicating the memorial will be November 8, the soldier's birthday.

Mrs. Rochester has placed her new book with the Santa Ana Book Store and the Summer Shop, where they are meeting with ready sale, not only because of the author and her son, but on account of its real merit. The dedicatory poem is as follows:

Tall, slim and straight, with tossing head and flashing eye—
Gone on! straight on! the while this puny world rolls by.

With never pause for doubt—from battle front—gone on!
Straight on! his part here finished toward the victory won.

Clean, noble soul, that lived forever close to God!
Boy's body that a little while this earth had trod;

Gone on! with never stop nor falter—strong and free—
Smiling, singing—straight on! into the world to be.

Boy's courageous heart that loved his fellows all;
Boy's happy, loving smile that made of each his thrall;

Gone on! straight on! beyond the reach of mortal sight;
Only through Love, the eye of Faith can see the light.

Doffing the garb of earth, new form to don—
Making of Death a glorious Victory—gone on!

RAIN BENEFITS OFFSET HARM AS .65 INCH IS ADDED

Total Precipitation Here Is
1.27; Bean Men to the Southwest Optimistic

Adding considerably to its somewhat dubious boon of moisture, mixed as it is with benefit and harm to Orange county, the rainfall continued last night, with the result that .65 of an inch was added to the precipitation during the twenty-four hours ending at 7 o'clock this morning.

The total rainfall here during the storm, and for that matter for the season—the present storm having brought the winter's first precipitation—is 1.27 inches, according to the rain gauge at S. Hill & Son's hardware store.

In spite of the fact that in some instances harm is being done by the rain, it appears that the benefits accruing will considerably offset the damage.

Bean men on the Irvine ranch had harvested their crops prior to the beginning of the present storm.

Will Suffer Loss

In the lowland sections to the southwest of Santa Ana, bean growers will suffer more or less loss on account of the rain, though it is believed that the damage will exceed 10 per cent. It is stated that bean growers in these sections have never during any season sustained a loss greater than that per cent owing to rainfall.

Approximately 25 per cent of the bean crop in the southwest sections has been harvested and hauled to cover, according to word today. Clearing skies from now on will have the result of obviating any serious damage to beans.

The rain that has fallen so far will necessitate hand-picking, which means considerable expense to the growers. However, it is stated that if dry weather sets in, the amount of damaged beans that will be sorted out will not exceed about 4 per cent.

Exceedingly dry weather is what is most feared by the bean men in the southwest sections from now on, as the heat would tend to crack the pods and cause a considerable wastage.

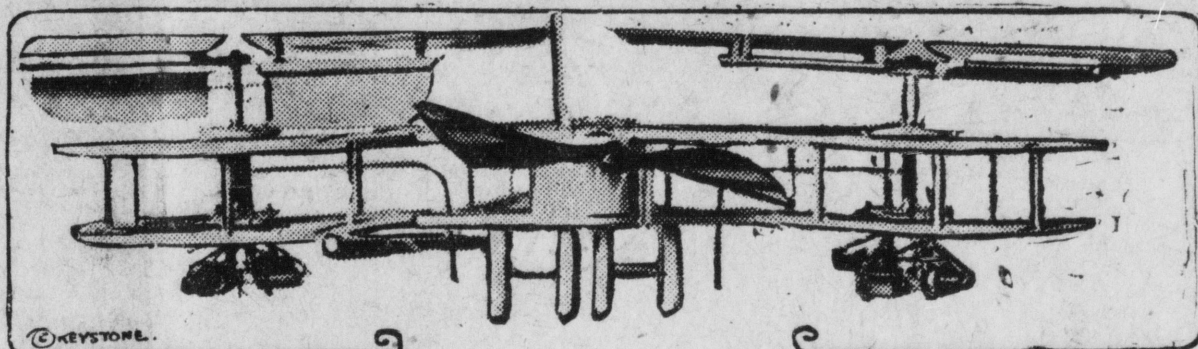

Mold in Walnuts

In some instances walnuts on trays are beginning to show signs of moldiness, owing to the damp weather. The wet weather causes walnuts to drop and hull out more freely. Should the rains continue at this time, walnut picking would be delayed for several days, owing to inability of picking crews to get into the groves.

As concerns oranges, these have been brightened up by the washing of rains, and they have suffered no damage. Picking will be resumed within twenty-four hours after sunny weather sets in, it was stated at the offices of the Orange County Fruit Exchange today. The fact that the rains have held up picking during the past few days has had no effect on shipments, because of the car shortage, which continues acute.

Invents Airplane to Fly Straight Up Experts Believe Craft May Be Success

HOME BUILDING IS URGED FOR SANTA ANA

Realizing that Santa Ana is in need of more homes in order to provide housing for people who would like to make this city their permanent residence, an effort is being made through propaganda to bring the city as a whole to an understanding of the situation.

There is but one remedy, and that is "Build."

Among those who are interested in bringing about a bigger campaign on building in Santa Ana are the following: Rankin Dry Goods Co., J. Flood Walker, J. E. Taylor & Co., Geo. J. Coking, Crescent Hardware Co., K. C. McMillan, C. F. Mitchell, J. G. Robertson, A. C. Black, Santa Ana Transfer Co., H. Garber of Santa Ana Brick Co., First National Bank, Excelsior Dairy Co., S. Hill & Son, and J. S. Fluor.

The need of building is being emphasized all over the country, and the city that builds fastest is the city that is going to get the biggest benefit out of the opportunity that is here. The condition the country over is set forth in the October Nation's Business as follows:

"America needs homes. In 1890 forty-eight per cent of our people were home owners; in 1910 this per cent dropped to forty-five and today it is estimated to be only forty-two. Home-owning going down—to what? To tenantry, absentee-landlordism, to slums, that disease of society which has been raging at the heart of the major European nations since Watts with his steam engine made it possible to centralize industry.

The stoppage of building during the war has left us a million homes short. That which has long been an industrial handicap has now become a national danger. The need of houses to stabilize the labor market may become a demand for homes to save a nation. Thus it happens that the most important thing to be said about industrial housing at the present time is to watch for a new point of view in approaching it. A new vision is needed."

GEN. PICO RESIDENCE WILL BE RESTORED

PASADENA, Sept. 30.—The residence of Gen. Pio Pico, governor of California during the Mexican regime, is to be restored and after a lapse of many years will again be used as a habitation. The Pico adobe is located in South Pasadena a short distance from the Raymond Hotel golf course. The house was built about one hundred years ago and at one time was the center of great social activity. About seventy-five years ago one of the walls crumbled during an earthquake. Now the wall is to be restored with large adobe bricks and other improvements are to be made at a cost of several thousand dollars. The property is owned by Mrs. C. E. Noyes, who recently purchased it for a home.

VICTORY CLAIMED BY GROWERS LOSING SUIT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Judge Shenk yesterday denied the injunction suit brought by D. C. Cruikshank and J. C. Curran, citrus growers, against the city of Pomona, to declare invalid the Pomona anti-smudge ordinance. Despite the ruling, the orchardists claim a victory, for the court held that the ordinance only prohibits within the city limits the production of smoke that creates a smudge or that is heavier than air. The growers stated that they are about to install a new heater that does not create a smudge and that under the court's ruling such a heater will be lawful.

W.J. BEACH

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—If the new-fangled airplane invented by W. J. Beach of this city, lives up to the expectations of Beach, expensive landing fields will not be necessary and planes of the type will be able to fly straight up or land gracefully on top of any building with a flat roof.

The new plane is unlike anything heretofore built. The lifting surfaces revolve. The motors are at the outer edges of these airfoils and mounted on a track. Revolving wings and stabilizers on top give the craft stability.

Beach has demonstrated his machine to the Aeronautical Society and hopes to have a large craft ready for actual trial soon. Experts who have examined the model believe it will do all the inventor claims for it.

MUST MOVE AND NO PLACE IS AVAILABLE

The Salvation Army is "all dressed up and no place to go." Its workers in Santa Ana under the leadership of the energetic Captain Shute had lined out for the hardest winter's effort in the history of the Salvation Army locally, and along comes a situation that may mean a setback in the campaign of activity that has been planned and upon which the Army here has set its heart.

The building on Sycamore street, between Third and Fourth streets, has been sold, and it is going to be made over into a bigger structure. The Salvation Army has received notice that it must vacate by the end of thirty days.

Capt. Shute went forth to find a new location. Going forth to find and finding are two different things in Santa Ana these days, whether the person doing the searching be out in search of house or store room.

Capt. Shute couldn't find a single

6 INCH CONCRETE ON NORTH MAIN, 2 IN. SURFACE, IS FAVORED

Committee to Confer With P.
E. Officials Soon; Order
Figures on E. First

The Santa Ana city council is anxious to rush the paving of North Main, East Fourth and East First streets and will use every possible means to bring about relief from the present "disastrous" and "absolutely fierce" condition.

This was demonstrated at last night's council meeting when preliminary action looking toward these needed improvements was taken.

"There is no Pacific Electric franchise to delay matters on East First street," declared Trustee Tubbs. This is a main highway and it seems to me it should be taken care of at once. Heavy loads are fast breaking up the concrete base. I think we should resurface some of the street and lay down new pavement on some of the area where the greatest damage has taken place."

Upon Tubbs' motion, City Engineer Hoy was instructed to investigate closely the condition of East First street from Main to the Santa Fe tracks, ascertain what damage has been done, and report to the council next Monday night what improvement work is necessary on this thoroughfare and its approximate cost.

To See P. E. Officials

Mayor J. G. Mitchell and Trustee C. H. Chapman were appointed a committee to arrange an early conference with high P. E. Officials to ascertain, if possible, the railroad's desires and intentions as to North Main street. It is to be a man-to-man conference, and the trustees hope for some definite decision without delay, so that the North

PACIFIC LIGHT AND POWER CORPORATION FIRST AND REFUNDING MORTGAGE 5 PER CENT GOLD BONDS.

Dated September 1, 1911

Due September 1, 1951

Interest payable March 1st and September 1st in Los Angeles and New York.

These bonds are a closed first mortgage of approximately $7,560,000 upon the property owned by the Southern California Edison Company at Big Creek, in Fresno County, and the transmission line from Big Creek to Eagle Rock, valued at more than $15,000,000. These bonds are also a refunding mortgage on the power plants and distributing systems in and around Los Angeles built by the Pacific Light and Power Company.

The sinking fund provides for an annual payment to the Trustees of $224,370, which money is to be used in buying at the market. These bonds are canceled, but the interest is collected each year by the Trustee and applied to the purchase of bonds in the market. In case bonds are not offered in the market at less than 105 and interest, the Trustee must call by lot as many bonds as can be paid for at 105 and interest. We believe every bond of this issue will be retired not later than 1935 through the operation of this sinking fund.

During the past 12 years both the gross and the net earnings of the property now comprising the Edison system have more than tripled and for the year ended July 31, 1919, were as follows:

Gross Earnings ..... $9,713,353.88
Operating expenses, including taxes, insurance and current maintenance.. 3,798,268.03

Net earnings before depreciation ..... $5,915,085.85
Annual interest charge on outstanding underlying mortgage bonds, including this issue ..... $1,616,920.00

Balance for other interests, dividends and depreciation ..... $4,298,165.85

Net earnings more than three and one-half times annual underlying mortgage bond interest charges. At the market price this bond yields 5.50% if held to 1951, and in excess of 6% if retired by the sinking fund by 1935. We heartily recommend this bond to investors who want an exceptionally secure investment.

COUNCIL WANTS QUICK ACTION ON PAVING

Legal Proceedings Under Way
For Forcing In New Sewer
Line on rand Avenue

Main street improvement program can be gotten under way.

Before the P. E. can spend in excess of $100,000 for improvements, it must first get the O. K. of the bond buyers in New York City, and despite the fact that the North Main street improvement, which would cost the P. E. $125,000 or more, has been submitted to the bond buyers nearly three months, no answer has yet been received. This delay is proving vexatious to the trustees, who feel that some action should be taken at once. The situation is further complicated by the P. E.'s reported recommendation to its bond buyers that the North Main street line be abandoned. Through the forthcoming conference, the trustees hope to find out whether or not the P. E. really intends to abandon the Main street line, and if not, whether it expects to maintain a single or double track on the thoroughfare.

"I believe we can get quick action from the P. E. through such a heart-to-heart talk with them," said Mayor Mitchell.

From remarks of the councilmen last night, it apparently is their intention to put a very heavy type of pavement on North Main street, six-inch concrete base with two-inch asphalt wearing surface in order to withstand the heavy traffic on this main highway.

The general attitude of the council on North Main street was summed up by Trustee Tubbs when he said: "Isn't just the property owners on North Main who are interested in the street, every resident of Santa Ana is interested, and I am ready to go to bat on what's best for the entire city. The property owners want to have the street put in good condition and we ought to do something just as soon as we can."

It is understood the East Fourth street property owners are considering what would be best to be done on that street and will have a recommendation ready for presentation to the council shortly. One large uptown owner has said he would be willing to stand the entire expense of new paving and would ask only that the city remove the old pavement now on the street.

Order Sewer Proceedings. Action looking to forcing in the Grand avenue sewer line was taken last night when the city attorney was instructed to prepare the first resolution under the Vrooman act, which is to be passed at an adjourned meeting of the council tomorrow night. All property owners south of Seventeenth have paid in their proportion of the cost, it was reported, and all north of Seventeenth either had paid or were willing to pay with the exception of Fred Rohrs, who owns 1331 feet of frontage, and who, it is reported, was reluctant to sign up. It is not right that one man should halt such a necessity as the Grand avenue sewer line, the council held, and decided to start legal proceedings at once and rush them through so that there may be no unnecessary delay in completing the work. Property owners willing to have the sewer may save themselves the unnecessary cost of the legal proceedings by paying their proportion of the cost to the city attorney at once.

Order Alley to Be Paved. Paving of the alley from Walnut to Pine street, between Main and Cypress, was ordered by the city council upon petition of a majority of the property owners, pavement to be of four-inch base and asphalt wearing surface. Only three owners had not signed the petition, it was reported, and one of these was willing to pave and another could not be found. Those signing the petition were George S. Decker, Mrs. Fannie Lash, Fred M. Young, Dr. and Mrs. John J. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Buck, Mrs. C. B. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Doyle and Karl A. Loerch.

City Council Brevities. Notice was received from the Western Indemnity Company that on November 1 it would cancel all indemnity policies carried by local auto stage lines. A new merged company, it is understood, will on that date take over the Western's business, issuing new policies for the old.

The ordinance requiring that all second-hand mattresses be fumigated before being offered for sale was given final reading and passed.

H. S. Vaughan was given permission to install a 285-gallon tank at 602 North Main street, under supervision of the fire chief.

A proposed ordinance, granting a franchise for a Santa Fe spur track on Brown street to serve the county's needs was given first reading and referred to the city attorney.

City Engineer Hoy was authorized to use his own best judgment as to the installation of a driveway into the new Orange County Garage at Sixth and Sycamore on the Sycamore street side, a special arrangement being necessary in order to avoid cutting into the sidewalk, on account of the 14-inch curb at that point.

The council adjourned until Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Dr. DuBois' Auto Is Captured By a Stubborn Billy Goat

FOR ways that are stubborn and tricks that are maddening, the Billy goat is now known to Dr. W. C. DuBois as leader of the animal flock.

The doctor had a call to a home in the country yesterday. When he departed from his machine for the bedside of his patient, he left the door of his automobile open. This was an invitation to an ambitious goat who was browsing off of wet tin cans and Bermuda grass by the wayside. The automobile looked dry, and the goat needed just some place for his well-being and comfort.

He took possession. He mounted through the door, and made his home upon a cushion. Just for luck he tried to balance himself on the top of the back of the seat. Verily, an automobile makes a good goat house.

When the physician had finished his attendance in the sick room, he returned to his machine. He tried to shoo the goat out, but the goat wouldn't shoo. Then the doctor reached in and tried to grab the animal by a hind leg. He was met by the goat's horns in action. That goat had taken special training in close-in fighting. No doubt about it.

Then the doctor, who still had hopes of riding home rather than footing it in the rain, got a pole, and he picked out the longest he could find.

That pole proved the goat's undoing. He butted it, but he couldn't break it, and with the same care that he would probe a bullet wound. Dr. DuBois slowly but surely backed the author of his troubles to the far edge of the machine, and then with a mighty heave he heaved the goat overboard. Then he had to hold the goat off with the pole while he got his machine started.

MUST MOVE BUT NO ROOM IS AVAILABLE

place vacant suitable to his needs, He wandered the length of Third, Fourth and Fifth streets and he inspected all the cross streets, and he came to the conclusion that Santa Ana is rented up to its full limit.

What's to be done about it? That is puzzling Capt. Schute, and will puzzle the hosts of friends that the Salvation Army has here.

One thing that can be done is to buy a building or put up a Salvation Army building. In the Salvation Army fund headed by the Elks some months ago, a building fund of $3000 was accumulated. That is a good-sized nestegg for a Salvation Army building. Under the rules of the general organization of the Salvation Army no local association is allowed to buy property until it is able to make at least a payment of fifty per cent. Capt. Schute thinks that it would take from $20,000 to $22,000 to handle a Salvation Army property here such as would be suitable and advisable.

Whether or not it would be advisable to make a drive and raise a few thousand dollars more for the Salvation Army organization here will be discussed by some of those most interested, in the next few days.

D. S. C. GIVEN SOLDIER WHO STUCK TO POST

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Convalescing from pneumonia, Private Manuel Simas, Company C, 364th Infantry, has received the highest honors of the United States for bravery in action while in France. Simas, whose parents live in San Jose, Calif., was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross in the presence of officers and enlisted personnel of the Letterman General Hospital here by Colonel Robert M. Thornburgh.

A year ago yesterday, September 28, 1918, Private Simas was operating a machine guns outpost in front of Eclis-Fontaine and received a machine gun bullet in his right upper arm. Private Simas stuck to his post from 5 o'clock this evening to 10:00 o'clock the following morning, keeping his machine gun operating all the while.

It was for his bravery in sticking to his post while seriously injured, and for not asking to be relieved, that the D. S. C. was awarded Simas.

SALIVAS HAS OLDEST LIVING M. E. PREACHER

SALINAS, Cal., Sept. 30.—Salinas boasts the oldest living minister of the Methodist church west of the Rockies. He is Rev. Joseph Emery, D. D., who was received on trial by the Pacific conference at Stockton, October 13, 1858, six years after the organization of the Pacific conference. Dr. Emery is the only surviving member of the 1858 conference. He has been preaching the gospel for sixty years, and has been circuit rider, station preacher, presiding elder and superintendent of Indian work.

FIGHTERS OF FOREST FIRE PAID $100,000

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—It cost the government close to $100,000 to conquer the forest fires which until a few days ago were raging in the Angeles Forest Reserve, according to figures computed yesterday when more than 1000 men, pressed into service to battle the conflagrations, were paid off in cash by Supervisor R. H. Charlton. Assisting in the paying off of the fire fighters were A. M. Smith and E. V. Lackey, fiscal agents of the National Forest Service, from San Francisco.

in this city. Let people give their children music lessons, even if they make no use of them; they study many things in school for which they have no use but they educate their tastes for the higher things in life.

Talk By Gustlin

The program last night was opened with a talk by the president of the musical association, C. A. Gustlin, who is making a great effort for better music in this city and hopes in time to have it become known for its good things along that line. It leaves a bitter taste in the mouth of citizens, who are zealous for the welfare of the city, to have a fine violinist come here and give a concert to empty seats and make the remark, "the next time I visit Santa Ana, I shall bring a hand organ and a monkey."

Excellent numbers were given by several returned service men, who, Mr. Gustlin said, had returned better musicians than they were when they went away. They included Percy Richards, Alan Revill, Hershel Clayton, Antone Polillo and Earl Fraser, W. A. Benjamin, who was to have assisted, was called north.

Alan Revill beautifully played the pipe organ numbers, "Coronation March" by Tchaikowsky and Sere-nade, by Wheelton; Antone Polillo gave a fine rendition of Invictus by Huhn and "One Fleeting Hour," responding with an encore, "When I Leave the World Behind."

Earl Fraser's fine instrumental work in Liszt's Tarentella and Debussy's "Reflets dans l'Eau," were greatly enjoyed and he responded with a little French modern. The quartet, composed of Hershel Clayton, Alan Revill, Antone Polillo and Percy Richards pleased with "Oh, Heart of Mine" by Smith and "The Dreaming Lake," Schumann, Earl Fraser accompanying in the first number.

Percy Richards did splendid work on the organ, his selections being Prelude Heroic, Faulker; Barcarolle, Wolstenholme and Intermezzo by Hollins, the program closing with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" with a vim, which showed that great good had been accomplished by this evening of good music with the musical association.

A number of people joined the association last night in order to take advantage of the fine programs planned for this year and to which only members will be admitted. Outside artists will be procured for this year's concerts.

Happy Mothers

Many mothers who in order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well fed and dressed, continually overdo.

The experience of motherhood alone causes a severe strain upon the system, from which many women recover slowly, and serious feminine disorders may develop unless great care is taken to prevent them.

To such women Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is invaluable. For many years this root and herb medicine has been recognized as the standard remedy for woman's ills, restoring them to a normal, healthy condition.

Mrs. Morgan's Case

East Hampton, N. Y. — "For two years I suffered with a female weakness, pains in my back and painful periods, and I was so weak and tired that I was not able to do my work. A friend told me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it gave me great relief. My pains left me and I am now able to do my work and feel fine. You can publish my testimonial and if your Vegetable Compound does others as much good as it has me I will be very much pleased."—Mrs. CHARLES E. MORGAN, CARE OF E. L. Dennett.

A Word to Childless Women

There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in many cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial.
